

Little Pottery Artist---- Pottery Creation

You will have an unique opportunity to be a little Pottery artist, traditional pottery handicrafts makes students full of creation

Course Teacher Information:

Zeng Yawen is the Pottery Workshop leading teacher. She graduates from Jingde Town Pottery College, Pottery Arts Design major, a youth pottery artist. She likes pottery teaching and research, very experienced pottery teacher in MH Maker. She is very kind, and loved by students.

Basic Information Overview
Year Group (s)	P1 – P2
Teacher Source	MH Maker Professional Artisans
Number of lessons	1 per week; 7 sessions in Term 1
Language	Chinese
Venue	MH Maker
Class Time	Friday, 3:45--5:15PM

Course Overview

Enrollment Criteria

Students who are interested in nature exploring, plants and insects.

Engage and Assess

The course will extend with Nature Arts, guide students to create, and learn nature and plants during creation. Encourage students to open mind and create.

Explore and Develop

During the course, will use plants, flowers, dry flowers, and etc to do handicrafts, will also organize students go to the nature for practical teaching. Let students have a deeper understanding of plants and insects, combine with handicrafts skills to show the art works.

Refine and Present

Will encourage students to create a small garden at home or their living community, let students feel love of plants and nature creation, and become a nature artist.

Parent Engagement Opportunity

Parents will be welcomed to participate in the experienced course together.
Parents need to collect students from MH Maker after lesson.

